

Douglas B. Jacobs

Chico, California

Dean of Students, Cal Northern School of Law

Douglas B. Jacobs was admitted to the bar in 1978 and has been in the private practice of law ever since. As in house counsel for a franchise corporation, he has been a member of the American Bar Association committee on Franchise law and has served on the California State Senate small business sub-committee on Franchising.

Today, Mr. Jacobs confines his practice to consumer bankruptcy, and business and real estate litigation.

Since 1988, Mr. Jacobs has taught Constitutional law and Debtor-creditor/bankruptcy law at the Cal Northern School of Law. He has served as Dean of Students since 1994.

He writes for and is a member of the Bankruptcy Law Network, a group of experienced and knowledgeable consumer bankruptcy practitioners. Bankruptcy Law Network

Mr. Jacobs is a member of the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys, the Bankruptcy Law Network, the Sacramento Valley Bankruptcy Forum, and the Butte County Bar Association.

RECENT ARTICLES BY DOUGLAS JACOBS

Completing Bankruptcy Paperwork »

Tell Your Bankruptcy Attorney Everything »

Filing Bankruptcy: First Steps »

Does It Matter, For Bankruptcy Purposes, How the Credit Cards Were Used? »

Always Tell Your Lawyer The Truth »

Bankruptcy And A New Car »

How To Keep Your Chapter 7 Trustee Happy. »

Do I Qualify For A Chapter 7 Bankruptcy? »

Buying A House After Filing Bankruptcy »

Foreclosures and Bankruptcy »